N. S. Morton : Assisting the Anaesthetist before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Assisting the Anaesthetist:

This manual describes in simple language the clinical and technical skills of an anaesthetic assistant. The key learning points are highlighted, and a comprehensive up-to-date reading list is included to guide the trainee to areas of further reading. This book is intended for vocational trainees, nurses, and paramedical staff who are undergoing training as anaesthetic assistants. Ambulance personnel, medical students, nurses, and anaesthetic nurses.
