Fred Hill : Delmar's Respiratory Care Drug Reference before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Delmar's Respiratory Care Drug Reference:

This pocket reference is an A to Z listing more than 400 drugs pertaining directly to respiratory care. category. Each drug listing includes a brief description of the action and contraindications, generic and trade names, phonetic pronunciations, uses, dosages, administration and storage, side effects, respiratory care considerations, and client/family teaching for drugs commonly used in respiratory care.

About the Author Fred Hill is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Cardiorespiratory Care at the University of South Alabama in Mobile.
