Remarks by the AuthorBy Harvey RosenwasserThis updated edition of Malpractice contact lenses covers many areas that practitioners will find of special value, especially in today's climate of increased risk. This book will also be of value to the attorney who is involved with malpractice issues and contact lenses. This book was written for the student as well as the seasoned practitioner and contains specific examples of forms, charts, and suggestions for improving the efficiency of patient record-keeping which will expedite and improve office procedures and help to limit liability. The author has limited his private practice to contact lens work for over 34 years. He is a fellow of the American Academy of Optometry, and has taught contact lens fitting and pathology in Europe for the past 23 years. He is presently a vice president of the Societe d' Europe d'Optometrie and serves on the visiting staff of The Eye Institute of the Pennsylvania College of Optometry. He also serves as a consultant to attorneys in both the defense and prosecution of contact lens cases.
