L. Lamar Blount, Joanne M. Waters : Mastering the Reimbursement Process (Billing and Compliance) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mastering the Reimbursement Process (Billing and Compliance):

8 of 11 people found the following review helpful. Best Source of Reimbursement Information for PhysiciansBy A Customer"Mastering the Reimbursement Process is the single best source for the physician, medical office staff, or others to get a comprehensive understanding of health insurance, claims submission, and the follow-up necessary to get paid by third parties." - Michael T. Myers, Jr, MD, MBA, Director, Health Care Regulatory Group, PriceWaterhouseCoopers LLP

Revised and updated with more than 200 pages of new information, this outstanding provides a solid educational foundation of the principles of the reimbursement process from start to finish. It is not a book on how to code, but how to communicate effectively with third-party payers. Mastering the Reimbursement Process offers a comprehensive understanding of insurance basics, types of insurance and payers, coding systems, insurance processing, review and appeals, and several extensive appendices of related information. An excellent reference to guide users through the reimbursement process from start to finish.

"I wish I had read this book when I was a second-year resident. I probably would be $60,000 ahead." From the Back Cover
