This is what I have run across in every book that I have purchased in hopes that something will help make sense of coding to me. It all started with a class at Career Step supposedly to learn how to code. But, all I did was the same things that I already knew, medical terminology, medical billing. Career Step then they just dropped the ball when it came to coding, basically there was NO coding information that they wanted to pass onto the student, period. And this all cost $3,300 for nothing. I do have all of the official coding books for those of you who are just beginning and don't have your books yet. HCPCS Level II 2017, CPT 2017, ICD 10-CM 2017.
